Station Events

WXDU holds live music shows both on and off campus several times a year. We also co-sponsor events with other groups; this year we showed "Buena Vista Social Club" and the Talking Heads' "Stop Making Sense" with Quad Flix, we helped the Center for Documentary Studies bring DJ Siraiki from NYC, and we assisted with the Transmissions002 festival of sound and film. On Tuesday, March 21 at 10 p.m., WXDU is bringing Mice Parade and the Dylan Group to the Duke Coffeehouse. Listen to win tickets to this and other local shows!

Training

WXDU recruits DJs three times a year. You don't need any experience, and it's a great way to learn a lot about music. To sign up for the next training session, e-mail Howard Fried at refried@email.unc.edu or leave a message at 684-2957.

Contact Info

The best way to contact the staff of wxdu is by e-mail to wxdu@duke.edu. Let us know if you'd like to be put on our mailing list to get informed about upcoming station events. But if you need to call or send us something:
